

Croesus Asset Management Limited

About us

Dr. Peter Reinhart: "The trading markets are a zero-sum game. No value is created, only redistributed. The key to success is to play differently than the masses would expect."

As head of our experienced team stands Dr. Peter Reinhart, the Founder and CEO of Croesus Asset Management Limited.

Dr. Peter Reinhart is deeply rooted in the teaching of man, holds university degrees in sociology and philosophy and a PhD in the latter.

He has been an independent businessman for over 35 years and an active trader for over 22 years. Once as active investment banker.

He changed his direction after a short time, when realizing that the world changes much more dynamically than banks do. From that point on he realized that independence in the investment market is an advantage. Since then, he has been completely independent.

Thanks to blockchain technology, finally also from banks.
